TBI Supports Youth and Sports Projects

Trade Bank of Iraq concluded a joint cooperation agreement with the Ministry of Youth and Sports as a contribution in supporting and rehabilitating Youth and Sports projects and activities, as well as sponsoring clubs plus association. Such cooperation emerged due to the importance of investing the energies of youth in developing society for they represent strength and shield for all nations. Our youths play a significant role in building and developing societies; societies that contain a large proportion of youth are stronger and richer than others.
