Supporting the Ministry of Culture and the Iraqi Manuscripts House

Trade Bank of Iraq (TBI) supported the Manuscripts House by donating 100 million Iraqi dinars (IQD 100,000,000). This contribution aims to assist in acquiring advanced, high-precision equipment for digitizing and preserving Iraq's world heritage, including thousands of multilingual and diverse manuscripts preserved by the institution. The initiative reflects TBI's commitment to supporting Iraqi institutions and preserving invaluable manuscripts of historical and cultural significance.

Early Detection of Breast Cancer Saves Life

An awareness workshop on the importance of early detection of breast cancer was carried out, highlighting the importance role of early diagnosis in mitigating risks associated with late treatment. The workshop emphasized understanding the causes and symptoms to enable timely intervention during early stages of the disease, thereby increasing the chances of recovery.

Supporting Elderly Care Homes

We are committed to serving our elders residing in senior care homes by providing assistance and support. As part of this effort, we have donated a power generator along with several household appliances to "Wabil Walidayn Ihsana" Home Care. This initiative reflects our dedication to social and humanitarian responsibility, continuing our mission to support the community and uphold national values.
